9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):

CalFresh applicant who is 20 years old lives with her parent. At interview, applicant is advised that she cannot be a separate household from her natural parent. The CW 2200 Request for Verification included a request to provide the parents income verification. 5 days after the interview, the applicant reports that she has moved out of her parents home and now lives alone (verification is provided).

Question:

What is the BDA for this CF application? The original application date or the date the CF household met the criteria as a separate household?

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

Since the change occurred after the date of the interview but prior to the application being approved, the household composition change would be treated as a voluntary mid period change (VUR) and the original application date would be used for the CF household of one.

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

CDSS concurs with your proposed answer.
